CPCoastal™ Donates Proceeds to Hurricane Irma Victims

Thousand Oaks, CA, September 10, 2017

CPCoastal brand, known for its mix of modern, impressionist, and vintage coastal themed art (with a special heart for the Caribbean), is donating design royalties from sales of the ‘Caribbean Nation – Stronger Than a Hurricane’ design to the Love for Love City Foundation. Shirts can be purchased through CPCoastal.com.

The Love for Love City Foundation was established by country music artist, Kenny Chesney, benefiting victims of hurricane Irma. Visit KennyChesney.com for information on the Foundation and to donate directly.

“We just returned from the Caribbean last week and are deeply saddened by the devastation and mass displacement caused by Irma. I wanted to help in some way, so 100% of royalty proceeds of Caribbean Nation T-Shirt sales will be donated to the Love for Love City Foundation,” commented owner and artist, Christine Barker.

About CPCoastal:

CPCoastal brand is a creative art company based in Los Angeles, CA, focusing on coastal themed art. The brand brings a mix of modern, impressionist, and vintage styles, with elements of bold colors. The art features a wide array of classic coastal and nautical themes capturing the essence of ocean, lake, and river-front living, as well as island lifestyles. Designs are created with a wide variety of products in mind. All are beach inspired, with the mission of bringing the coastal vibe to any space. It’s coastal art with an adventurous spirit and laid back attitude.

CPCoastal is committed to bringing global awareness of how precious oceans, lakes, and rivers are, not only for the incredible beauty they provide, but also for how much we need them for our own survival. For information about licensing or purchasing art, please contact the company.
