CPCoastal™ Signs Deal with Walking Dots

Thousand Oaks, CA, February 20, 2017

CPCoastal brand, known for its mix of modern, impressionist, and vintage coastal themed art, signed a new art licensing deal with Walking Dots. Walking Dots is a unique, online provider of art prints, stationery, greeting cards, calendars, journals and tech cases. WD has recognized the rapidly increasing demand for coastal themed products, and has responded by expanding its coastal genre by signing CPCoastal. Products can be purchased through CPCoastal.com or WalkingDots.com.

Available for licensing, CPCoastal collections infuse bold colors reflective of Caribbean blues and brilliant sunsets. It offers a wide array of classic and nautical themes capturing the essence of ocean, lake, and river-front living, as well as island lifestyles. The brand showcases popular watersport activities such as boating, surfing, fishing, and paddle boarding. It also features novelty favorites - palm trees, sunsets, sea life, sea shells, umbrellas, beach chairs, lifeguards, flip flops, and much more.

CPCoastal designs are beach inspired with the purpose of connecting people to what they love about the coast. The company's mission is to create coastal art which brings the beach to any space via a variety of products including textiles, home décor, paper and stationery, tableware, technology, beach and boat lifestyle accessories.

"I am honored to partner with Walking Dots to bring a wider selection of coastal art to market. This is another step forward in broadening the coastal art genre by making it available on more products," explained owner and artist, Christine Barker.
